- Start studying early. The sooner you start studying, the more time you will have to learn the material and practice your skills.
- Create a study schedule and stick to it. Consistency is key when it comes to studying for the LSAT.
- Set realistic goals. Don't try to do too much too soon. Start with small goals and work your way up to larger ones.
- Take breaks. It is important to take breaks throughout your study sessions to avoid burnout.
- Review your material regularly. Reviewing your material will help you retain the information and improve your understanding.
- Read the questions carefully. Make sure you understand what each question is asking before you start answering it.

- Use process of elimination. If you are not sure of the answer to a question, eliminate the answers that you know are wrong.
- Guess intelligently. If you are unable to eliminate any of the answers, guess intelligently based on your knowledge of the material.
- Manage your time wisely. Don't spend too much time on any one question. Move on to the next question if you are stuck.
- Stay calm. It is important to stay calm during the LSAT. If you start to feel anxious, take a few deep breaths and focus on your breathing.
- Believe in yourself. You can score 180 on the LSAT if you believe in yourself.
- Be positive. A positive attitude will help you stay motivated and focused.
- Don't give up. The LSAT is a challenging exam, but it is possible to score 180 if you don't give up.
- Seek help. If you are struggling, don't be afraid to seek help from a tutor, teacher, or friend.
