Types of IELTS Writing Tasks

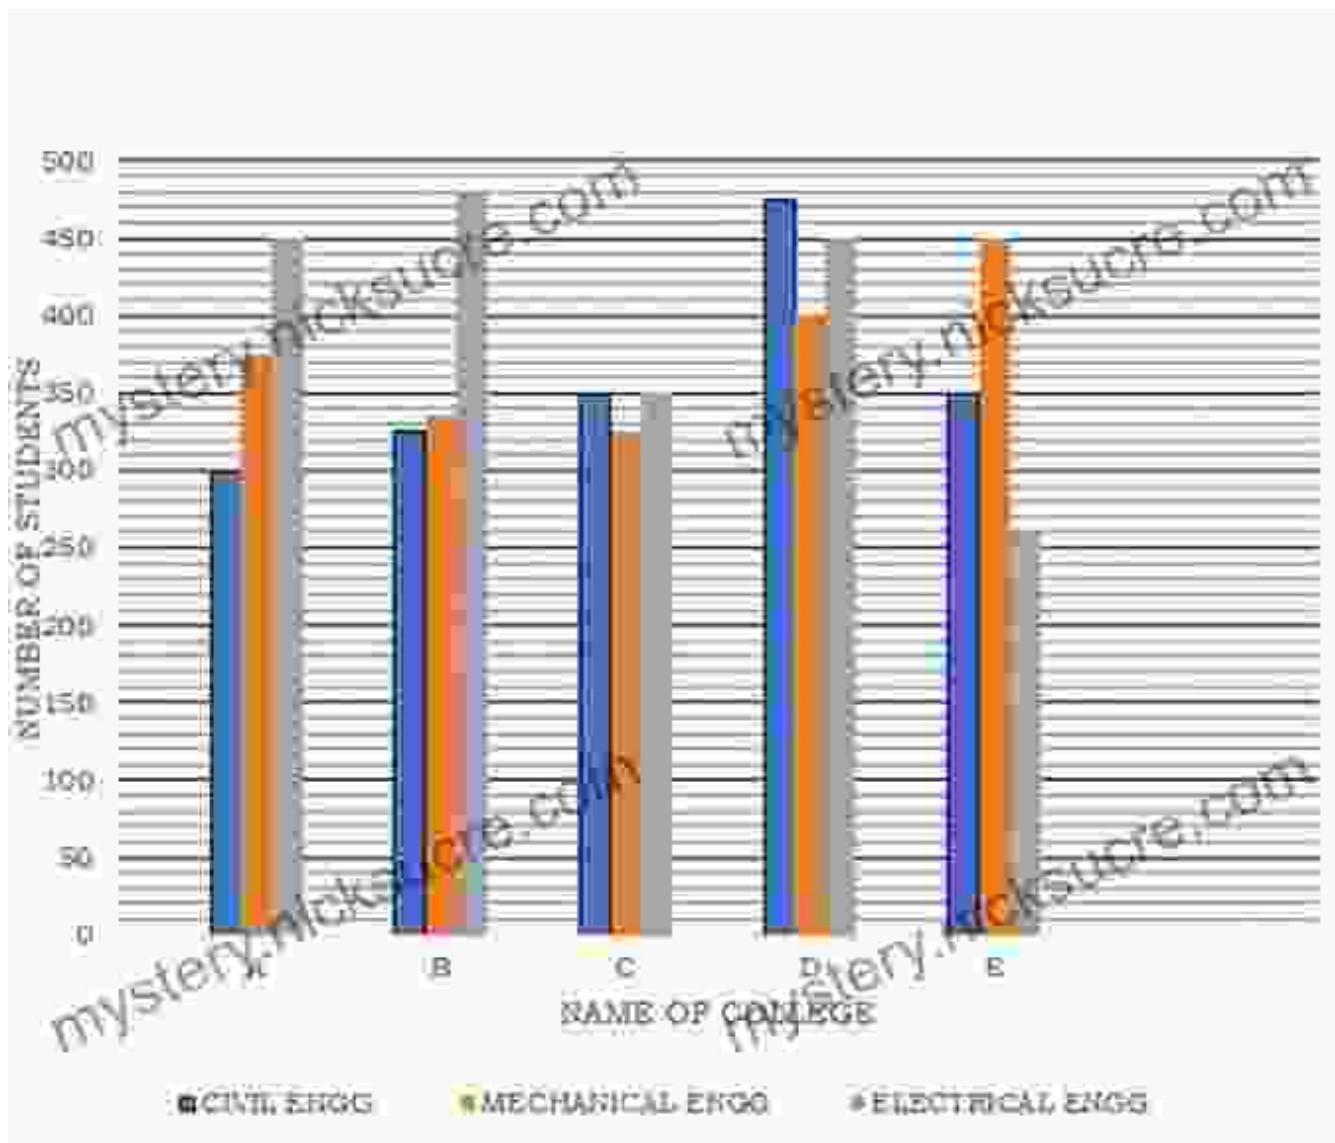

The IELTS Writing Task consists of two distinct tasks:

1. Task 1: A short report or summary based on a provided graph, table, or diagram.
2. Task 2: An essay that responds to a specific prompt, expressing your opinion, supporting it with evidence, and presenting a logical argument.

IELTS Writing Task 1 Samples

Task 1 requires you to write a summary or report based on a given visual representation. Here are some sample prompts and corresponding high-scoring responses:

Prompt 1:

Response:

The line graph illustrates the enrollment trends in various university courses over a five-year period. The data indicates that the number of students pursuing Engineering and Business Administration has consistently increased throughout the period. In contrast, enrollment in Law and Humanities has experienced a gradual decline. Specifically, Engineering enrollment rose from 2000 students in 2015 to approximately 3500 in 2020, while Business Administration saw a surge from 1800 to 2800 students during the same period. Conversely, Law enrollment dropped from 1500 to 1100 students, and Humanities enrollment decreased from 1200 to 800 students.

Prompt 2:

The table below shows the average monthly rainfall in two different cities. Summarize the information by selecting and reporting the main features, and make comparisons where relevant.

Write at least 150 words.

Average Monthly Rainfall, in inches

	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sep	Oct	Nov	Dec
Woodsville	5	4	3.75	2.5	1.75	1.5	0.75	1	1.5	3	6	5.5
Blacksboro	3	4	2.5	1	0.25	0.1	0.01	0.04	0.25	0.5	1	2.5

Response:

The provided table summarizes the average monthly rainfall in four cities: London, New York, Tokyo, and Sydney. London receives the highest average rainfall, with approximately 60mm per month throughout the year. New York experiences moderate rainfall, ranging between 40mm and 50mm per month. Tokyo's rainfall is notably higher during the summer months, with an average of 80mm in June and July, while its winter rainfall is significantly lower at around 20mm per month. Sydney has a relatively consistent rainfall pattern, with an average of 30-40mm per month throughout the year.

IELTS Writing Task 2 Samples

Task 2 requires you to write an essay in response to a given prompt, presenting your opinion and supporting it with evidence. Here are some sample prompts and corresponding high-scoring essays:

Prompt 1:

Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of using social media.

Essay:

Social media has become an integral part of modern life, offering a myriad of advantages and disadvantages. On the one hand, social media platforms enable us to connect with friends and family, stay informed about current events, and access a wealth of information and entertainment. Additionally, social media can facilitate business networking, promote social activism, and provide support for individuals facing challenges. However, the excessive use of social media can also lead to negative consequences, such as privacy concerns, cyberbullying, and addiction. Furthermore, social media algorithms can create echo chambers, reinforcing our existing biases and limiting our exposure to diverse perspectives.

Prompt 2:

What are the most important qualities of a good leader?

Essay:

Effective leadership requires a combination of essential qualities that enable individuals to inspire, motivate, and guide others. Integrity and honesty are paramount, as they foster trust and credibility. Visionary leaders have the ability to articulate a compelling future and inspire others to work towards it. Emotional intelligence allows leaders to connect with their team members, understand their needs, and create a positive work environment. Additionally, effective communication skills are crucial for conveying ideas clearly and persuasively. Finally, resilience and adaptability are indispensable qualities that enable leaders to navigate challenges and thrive in changing circumstances.

Tips for Writing High-Scoring Essays

- Understand the task instructions carefully: Identify the specific requirements of the task and ensure that your response addresses all the key points.
- Plan your essay: Before you start writing, take a few minutes to brainstorm ideas and organize your thoughts into a logical structure.
- Use clear and concise language: Avoid using overly complex or technical language. Instead, opt for straightforward and accessible language.
- Support your claims with evidence: Provide specific examples, statistics, or other evidence to support the points you make.
- Maintain a consistent tone: Your essay should have a consistent tone throughout, whether it is formal, informal, or persuasive.
- Proofread carefully: Before submitting your essay, proofread it carefully for any errors in grammar, punctuation, or spelling.
