What is the CLEP?

The CLEP is a program of college-level exams that can give you college credit for what you already know. The exams are offered in a variety of subjects, including:

- Business
- Composition and Literature
- Foreign Languages
- History and Social Sciences
- Mathematics and Science

CLEP exams are a great way to:

- Earn college credit without taking a class
- Save time and money on your college education
- Demonstrate your knowledge and skills to potential employers

How to Prepare for the CLEP

The best way to prepare for the CLEP is to use a comprehensive study guide like Peterson's Master the CLEP. This guide will provide you with everything you need to know to pass the exams, including:

- In-depth reviews of all 33 CLEP exams
- Practice questions and answers for every exam
- Expert tips and strategies for success
- A full-length practice test for each exam

In addition to using a study guide, you should also take advantage of the following resources:

- CLEP website: The CLEP website provides a wealth of information about the exams, including sample questions and practice tests.
- College Board website: The College Board website offers a variety of resources for CLEP students, including online courses and practice tests.
- Local library: Your local library may have CLEP study guides and practice tests available for checkout.

Test Day

On test day, you should arrive at the testing center early and be prepared to show your photo ID. You will be given a locker to store your belongings and will be escorted to your testing station. The CLEP exams are computer-based and you will be given a headset to use during the exam.

The CLEP exams are timed, so it is important to pace yourself. Each exam has a different time limit, so be sure to check the CLEP website for the specific time limits for the exams you are taking.

After you have completed the exam, you will be given a score report. Your score report will tell you whether you passed or failed the exam and will also provide you with your scaled score. Scaled scores range from 20 to 80, with a score of 50 being the passing score.

Peterson's Master the CLEP is the most comprehensive and up-to-date guide to the CLEP exams available. With this guide, you can be confident
