 Part 1: The Promise of God's Love* Part 2: The Promise of God's Presence* Part 3: The Promise of God's Power

In each part, Lucado explores a different aspect of God's character and how it can bring us hope in the midst of life's challenges.

The Promise of God's Love

In Part 1, Lucado writes about the unconditional love of God. He reminds us that God loves us just as we are, even when we don't deserve it. Lucado writes that, "God's love is not based on our performance. It is based on his character."

The promise of God's love is a powerful source of hope. It gives us the assurance that we are never alone and that we are always loved.

The Promise of God's Presence

In Part 2, Lucado writes about the promise of God's presence. He reminds us that God is with us always, even when we can't feel him. Lucado writes that, "God's presence is not always comfortable. But it is always there."

The promise of God's presence is a great source of comfort. It gives us the assurance that we are never alone and that we can always count on God's help.

The Promise of God's Power

In Part 3, Lucado writes about the promise of God's power. He reminds us that God is all-powerful and that he can do anything. Lucado writes that, "God's power is not always obvious. But it is always present."

The promise of God's power is a great source of hope. It gives us the assurance that we can overcome any challenge with God's help.

In Unshakable Hope, Max Lucado shares a powerful message of hope that is based on the promises of God found in the Bible. Lucado writes that, "Hope is not a feeling. It is a choice. It is a decision to believe that God is good, even when life is hard."

The promises of God's love, presence, and power are a powerful source of hope in the midst of life's challenges. When we believe these promises, we can live with unshakeable hope, knowing that God is with us and that he will never let us down.
